The latest news for Metro riders

Introducing Mobility On-Demand!

Please take our brief survey.

Metro has the exciting opportunity to study and design on-demand transit service for communities in our region that have not had access to public transportation in the past.

Mobility On-Demand will provide accessible, on-demand, localized mobility for all, including connections to Metro's network of more than 40 fixed bus routes.

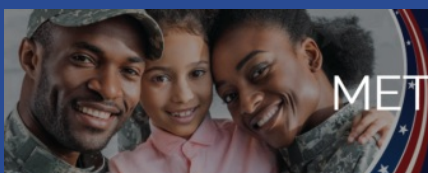

Tell us where Mobility On-Demand should go!*

METRO VETERANS PROGRAM

Did you know Metro offers discounted bus fare to all military veterans and active-duty members?

The Metro Veterans Program is our small way of saying, "You served us; now let us serve you."

Qualifying applicants can use their MVP card to access half-fare rides on all Metro bus routes.

All veterans can ride Metro for FREE on Veterans Day*!

Proper ID indicating military or veteran status required.*

Metro Thanksgiving Holiday Schedule

In observance of the Thanksgiving holiday, all Metro fixed-route and Access buses will operate on a Sunday schedule on Thursday, Nov. 25.

Metro's administrative offices and Downtown sales office will be closed that day. They will reopen Friday, Nov. 26.

Reminder: Anderson Park & Ride Is Moving (But not far)

Effective Sunday, Nov. 7, Metro's Park & Ride facility at Anderson Towne Center will relocate from its current location on Five Mile Road to Towne Center Way, just south of the current P&R.

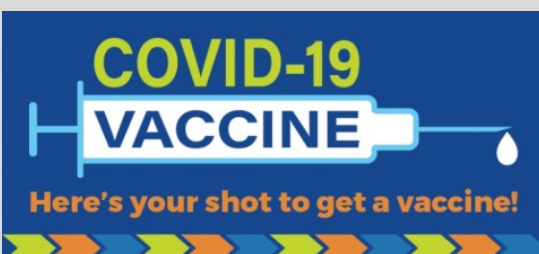

Nearby surface and garage parking will remain available to Metro customers.

The move is to accommodate a planned construction project that will span until November 2023.

Routes impacted by the relocation include Rts. 24, 75X and 81.

There's a lady at the Peebles Corner bus stop in Walnut Hills, dressed as a bumble bee and passing out Halloween candy to @cincinnati metro drivers and that put a much needed smile on my face. ❤️😊
